[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Hampton, Va., November 6-Miss Amanda McCready, eighty-three years old, met a frightful death to-day in her home in Mallory Street, Phochus, when her clothing caught fire in the kitchen of her residence. Miss McCready was alone at the time, and it is supposed that she attempted to strike a match to light a slove. A portion of the match probably ignited her dress, and in her dilemma she ran into the backyard of her home, where her charted remains were found a short time afterwards. Miss McCready was very feeble, and her weakened condition is believed to have prevented an outery.
